St. James's, June 14.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency Thomas Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, were preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave to return our moſt humble Acknowledgment and Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to our Addreſs, in which your Majeſty is pleaſed to take Notice of our Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty.

Your Majeſty's Care of our Welfare will enable your faithful Commons, by Actions, as well as Words, to let the World ſee how entirely they are devoted to your Majeſty's Service, and how low ſoever the preſent Condition of this Kingdom is, we cannot but promiſe our ſelves, from your Majeſty's Goodneſs, that it ſhall once again flouriſh, to the Honour of your Majeſty, and to the Eaſe and Satisfaction of all your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects.

Long may your Majeſty live to ſupport, as you have reſtored, the Liberties of Europe; to obtain which Bleſſing nothing in our Power ſhall be wanting that may contribute thereunto.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Arch-Biſhops, Biſhops, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Church of Ireland in Convocation aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, by our Profeſſion and Inclination always nearly intereſted in every thing that concerns your Sacred Perſon, partaking in all your Afflictions, and Rejoicing in all your Succeſſes, do take this firſt Opportunity of our meeting in Convocation, to Condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of that Excellent Prince your Royal Conſort; and at the ſame time to Congratulate you on the Gracious and Remarkable Providences which have always attended your Reign.

And as we are deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have received by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, ſo we ſhall upon all Occaſions contribute what in us lyes, to ſupport you in it, and maintain the Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſhed in the Proteſtant Line againſt all Pretenders whatſoever.

May Almighty God make up the Loſs of your Royal Conſort in the Love and Affections of your People, and a conſtant ſupply of Perſonal and National Bleſſings; may he ſtill continue to reward your Exemplary Piety, your Care of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and Zeal for the common Good of your Subjects, and of all Europe, with a conſtant Courſe of Victories, or with the more deſirable Bleſſing of an honourable and laſting Peace.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

To his Excellency Thomas Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant-General, and General-Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Arch-Biſhops, Biſhops, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Church of Ireland in Convocation aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE acknowledge Her Majeſty's Care of us, in appointing a Perſon of ſuch eminent Abilities and great Experience to be our chief Governor. We are truly ſenſible of your Excellency's good Inclinations and Affection to this Country, and therefore cannot doubt but you will have a particular Regard to the Welfare and Security of the Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, which is the main Support and Strength of the Engliſh Intereſt in this Kingdom.

And we beg leave upon this Occaſion to repreſent to your Excellency, that it hath been the conſtant Practice as well as Principle of our Church, to purſue Peace, and cultivate a good Underſtanding amongſt all Men; and as we have always hitherto avoided doing any thing which might cauſe uneaſineſs to any of our Fellow-Subjects, ſo neither ſhall we, by our future Behaviour, give them a juſt reaſon of Offence.

We ſhall make it our Care and Endeavour to preſerve a perfect Union and Friendſhip amongſt our ſelves, and that there be no Contention amongſt us, but who may ſhew moſt Zeal for Her Majeſty's Service, for the promoting true Religion and Piety, and (under a full aſſurance of your Excellency's Favour) for making your Government eaſie and proſperous.

St. James's, June 14. Yeſterday in the Evening Count Kuffſtein, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Emperor to condole the Death of his Royal Highneſs Prince George, (introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Boyle) had his private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty.

Vienna, June 8. N. S. The Swediſh Miniſters in theſe Parts have received, by the way of Poland, a Journal of the Motions of the King of Sweden's Army in Ukrania, from the beginning of January to the 11th of April, N. S. This Relation contains an account of the ſeveral Rencounters that have paſſed between Parties of the Swediſh and Ruſſian Armies; and ſays, that in the Month of February the King of Sweden, with the greateſt part of his Army, entred the Frontiers of Muſcovy, in order to engage his Enemy in a general Action; but the Muſcovites declining a Battel, and retiring ſtill further into the Country, and a ſudden Thaw having then rendred the Rivers impaſſable, his Swediſh Majeſty returned again into Ukrania, having burnt all the Towns and Villages on the Frontiers of Muſcovy for the ſpace of ſeven Leagues. On the 14th of March his Swediſh Majeſty arrived at Budeſſin, and quartered his Army between the Rivers Pſizol and Wortzlo. By this means he blocked up Pultawa, in which Place were Five thouſand Muſcovites. There he intended to continue 'till the Forage ſhould be ſprung up. This Account adds, that the General of the Coſſacks, who are diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Zaporowitz, had ſubmitted himſelf to the King of Sweden's Protection, bringing over with him an Army of 15000 Men, which he aſſured his Swediſh Majeſty he would ſoon augment to a greater number, and with it invade Muſcovy. He gave likewiſe the King of Sweden hopes, that the Tartars, as alſo the Daniſh Coſſacks, would ſoon follow his Example. Laſt Night the Emperor and Empreſs returned from Laxenberg to the Favourite, where they intend to reſide during the Summer Seaſon. Laſt Week a Courier arrived here from Barcelona, who left that Place on the 16th of May. All the Troops were then on their March towards the Segra, where they were to Rendezvous. Marſhal Staremberg was to ſet out thither in a few Days; and it was thought the King himſelf would go into the Field this Campaign. Prince Adam of Lichtenſtein, and Count Traun, the Emperors Commiſſioners to the Diet of Hungary, are gone to Presburg, and have carried with them his Imperial Majeſty's Reſolutions touching the Grievances of that Kingdom. Marſhal Heiſter intended to ſet out from hence this Day, in order to open the Campaign in thoſe Parts, and to reſtrain the Excurſions of the Hungarians. The Malecontents attempted ſome Days ago to put in a Supply of Proviſions into Neuhauſel; but the Germans having timely notice of it, defeated their Deſign, beat their Convoy, and ſeized on their Proviſions. 'Tis ſaid, the Daniſh Troops will begin their March out of Hungary
